

HR INSURANCE FORUM

HR Insurance Forum Breakfast Event: SMCR - what you really need to know!

Are you feeling overwhelmed by the Senior Managers and Certification Regime (SMCR) which has recently hit the insurance sector?

We will help you to understand what you really need to know about SMCR and how it will impact your role day-to-day, from recruitment to terminations.

The event will be interactive and you will also have an opportunity to share experiences with other HR professionals and discuss how SMCR is being implemented in different businesses.

The GQ|Littler HR Insurance Forum holds regular free events for HR professionals in the insurance sector to network, learn more about key employment issues and share experiences. All levels of professionals are welcome to attend.
