

Littler Europe has been shortlisted for the Financial Times Europe Innovative Lawyers 2021

Press release - 6 September 2021

Littler Europe is delighted to be shortlisted for the Financial Times Europe Innovative Lawyers 2021. We have been shortlisted in the new Business of Law category which has a focus on initiatives and projects relating to law firm strategy, management, and operations.

Stephan Swinkels, Littler Shareholder, comments: "The fact that the Financial Times and RSG Consulting have shortlisted Littler in Europe confirms that we have been able to build a true European platform and not just a collection of offices. It is a huge shout out to all our European partners who work so hard every day to show how important it is for our clients to have access to a specialist labour and employment law firm that is local, everywhere!"

Jon Gilligan, Managing Partner of Littler's London office, added: "Being shortlisted for this prestigious award is fantastic recognition for Littler's European growth over the past few years. Having only entered the European market six years ago, we now have 24 offices across 11 countries and our European presence and expertise are integral to Littler's proposition as the single source solution provider to the global employer community."

The virtual awards ceremony will take place on 14 October 2021.

About Littler

With more than 1,600 labour and employment attorneys in offices around the world, Littler provides workplace solutions that are local, everywhere. Our diverse global team and proprietary technology foster a culture that celebrates original thinking, delivering groundbreaking innovation that prepares employers for what's happening today, and what's likely to happen tomorrow. For more information, visit www.littler.com.